Description

The property is a residential building located in the prestigious Lykavittos area of Nicosia, close to Academia Park and within easy access to the city centre. The estate is available either as a whole or as individual residential units, offering excellent flexibility for both private use and investment. Set on a 500 sq.m. plot with a total built-up area exceeding 550 sq.m., the development includes a spacious four-bedroom maisonette with private yard, verandas, storage areas, and covered parking, a three-bedroom ground floor apartment with large verandas and basement utility space, and a three-bedroom first-floor apartment with covered parking. Additional features include a 101 sq.m. basement parking area and external storage rooms. The property also offers the possibility to construct an additional floor, creating significant expansion and added-value potential. Its prime location and versatile layout make it ideal for owner occupation, rental income, resale opportunities, or a combination of residential and professional use. Individual units are also available for purchase.
