Description

The property consists of three agricultural fields located in Skoulli, Paphos, offering a combined investment opportunity in a peaceful rural setting. Two of the fields are held under full ownership, while the third represents a 50% share, with a total area exceeding 31,000 sq.m. The land benefits from access via a registered road along its southern boundary, as well as frontage to a registered footpath, enhancing accessibility. Its large size and layout make it suitable for agricultural use or long-term investment. The fields fall within planning zone Γ3, allowing a building density of 10%, coverage of 10%, and up to two floors of development. The property is located close to the community center and main road connections, offering a balance of tranquility and accessibility.
