Description

The entire second floor has been fully renovated and redesigned into two premium office units of 310 sq.m. each, offering a contemporary workspace tailored to the needs of modern businesses. Designed with a focus on functionality, comfort, and professional image, each office combines high-quality finishes with a practical layout, creating an ideal environment for companies seeking a prestigious corporate presence in a prime business location. Each office unit features private restrooms, fully equipped conference rooms, a modern reception area, a contemporary kitchen, brand-new premium flooring, and high-quality materials and finishes throughout. The building offers a range of professional services and facilities, including a prestigious entrance lobby, on-site security, underground parking, building reception services, answering services upon request, and access to additional conference room facilities. Ideally positioned in one of the city's most accessible business districts, these offices provide an excellent combination of convenience, professional prestige, and modern working standards, making them suitable for a wide range of corporate occupiers seeking high-end office accommodation.
