Description

The property is a traditional two-bedroom detached stone house located in the peaceful village of Kalo Chorio, Limassol. Set in an elevated position, the residence offers approximately 109 sq.m. of internal area and combines traditional stone character with comfortable living spaces. The main level comprises a spacious kitchen and living area, a large bedroom and a full bathroom. The lower level features a second bedroom with a separate entrance, as well as a storage room, providing additional privacy and flexibility. Externally, the property benefits from a large rear garden and a generous front patio, offering ample outdoor space for relaxation and entertaining. The elevated position provides beautiful open views, while uncovered parking is available below the house. Additional features include full air-conditioning and solar panels. The property is offered unfurnished. It is located approximately 25–30 minutes from Limassol. A title deed is available for the property.
