Description

The property is a set of two unified offices located on the fifth floor of “Themis Tower” in the Agia Triada area of Limassol. It comprises office spaces of approximately 41 sqm and 109 sqm, which are unified and, together with an additional office, occupy the entire fifth floor. Positioned adjacent to Olympion Street and close to key landmarks such as the Limassol District courthouse and 28th of October Avenue, the property benefits from a prime location within the city’s commercial center. The surrounding area is highly developed, featuring a wide range of businesses and professional services. The offices are currently occupied, and viewings cannot be arranged, making this an investment-oriented opportunity in a well-established commercial location.
